Cadiz, June 23.

THE Spaniſh Squadron having entred the Streights has paſſed by Malaga, in order to cruiſe againſt the Algerines. Two Ships of 50 Guns each, with Quickſilver for the Weſt-Indies, are in this Bay ready to ſail, under the Command of Vice-Admiral Don Fernando Chacon, the Marqueſs of Caſafuerte goes over with them to his Viceroyſhip of Mexico. The Superintendant Don Joſeph Patinno ſets out from hence in a few Days for the Court of Madrid. Several Regiments have been lately reformed, and all remains quiet in theſe Parts.

Paris, July 15. Letters from Rome of the 13th paſt give an Account, That on the 9th Cardinal Althan went to the Quirinal Palace, accompanied by a great Number of Prelates: He was received in the Apartment uſed for the Reception of Crowned Heads, by the Pope's Majordomo attended by the Swiſs Guards: He was ſoon after introduced into the Conſiſtory, where in the Name of the Emperour he did Homage to the Pope for the Inveſtiture of Naples and Sicily granted to his Imperial Majeſty: Which done, he returned to his own Houſe, the Pope refuſing to treat him in the Palace with the Honours uſually ſhewn on ſuch Occaſions to a ſecular Viceroy; becauſe it appears by the Pontifical Regiſters, that in former Times thoſe Honours uſed to be paid only to ſecular Viceroys, not to Cardinals; for Inſtance, the Cardinal of Arragon, in the Time of Pope Alexander the VIIth, went from Rome to his Viceroyſhip of Naples without receiving thoſe Honours. As for the Differences which have riſen between the Pope and the Emperour, touching the Nomination to Benefices, it has been agreed to divide them between them, the Pope being to nominate to one Half and his Imperial Majeſty to the other. The Court of Spain had not made any Proteſt at Rome, againſt the Pope's granting the forementioned Inveſtiture to the Emperour. Theſe Letters add, that on the 10th a Gentleman arrived at Rome, who had been ſent by the Elector of Bavaria to ask a Diſpenſation from the Pope, for the Marriage agreed between the Electoral Prince of Bavaria and the Archdutcheſs ſecond Daughter of the late Emperour Joſeph; which had been notified to the Pope before, by an Expreſs from the Electoral Prince himſelf, who is now at Bologna. On the 12th the Count d'Almenara Vicetoy of Sicily, arrived at Rome in his Way thither. Cardinal Zondadori had received Advice the ſame Day, that his Brother the Great Maſter of Malta, who had been judged to be at the Point of Death, was in a way of Recovery. The following Extract of the Advices received by the Court relating to the Plague, has been communicated to the foreign Miniſters.

The Gevaudan. The Duke de Roquelaure in his Letter of the 3d of July writes that the general Quarantain began the 1ſt of July and will end the 10th of Auguſt: All Diſpoſitions were made for performing it with all Exactneſs. M. de Bernage in his of the 3d ſays, the good State of Health continued every where, and not one Perſon was ſick of the Plague. M. de Rothe confirms the perfect Recovery of all the Places which had ſuffered by the Contagion, and ſays no Marks of the Diſtemper had appeared for a long time, which made it hoped the Quarantain would paſs without any Accident.

Provence. M. le Bret writes the 1ſt of July, that on the 29th of June there remained in the Hoſpital at Marſeilles 50 Perſons ſick who were likely to do well, and 14 who had recovered. There was no Danger to be apprehended from the Village of Bouiſſet and the Baſtide of Buſtrel. M. de Vibraye in his of the 2d, ſays he had an Account from Marſeilles by a Letter dated the 24th of June, that in the four preceeding Days none had fallen ſick in the Town or in its Territory, and it was hoped the great Heats would have a good Effect.

The Comtat. The Marqueſs de Nogaret in his Letter of the 3d of July adviſes, that 10 or 12 fell ſick at Avignon, and about as many died there, a-Day. The Diſtemper had ſpread into all Quarters of the Town; ſome Convents, and ſeveral Houſes of Perſons of Note, which had long kept free, were infected. The Forces poſted along the Rhone and on the Iſlands, were very vigilant. M. de Vedrille in his of the 2d of July, ſends incloſed a Letter from Avignon, confirming the bad Condition of that Town, the Poverty of the Inhabitants, and the Difficulty of keeping requiſite Quarantains there for Want of Money. The Pope having ordered the Apoſtolical Chamber to lend them 100000 Roman Crowns, 25000 had been already remitted. The Abbot de la Fare has likewiſe ſent a Letter from Carpentras dated the 26th of June, which confirms that 12 or 15 Perſons died, and as many fell ſick, a-Day, at Avignon; where the Diviſion among the Ma-

Magistrates, and the Communication among the People, would probably keep up the Distemper a long Time.

Whitehall, April 16, 1722.

This is to signify in His Majesty's Name, that if any Person or Persons shall hereafter apprehend any one or more Highwaymen, who from and after the Date hereof shall have robbed any of the Mails, or shall have been concerned as Accomplices in the robbing of any of them, such Person or Persons shall have a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds for each Offender, who shall be convicted thereof, to be paid by the Receiver General of the Post-Office, over and above the Reward directed by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen; or if any Person hereafter concerned in robbing any of the Mails shall make a Discovery of the same, so that his Accomplice or Accomplices shall be convicted thereof, such Person shall have His Majesty's most gracious Pardon, and also receive the Reward of Two Hundred Pounds for each Offender so convicted, to be paid as aforesaid.
